

MASTER

Université de Lyon, Ecole Normale Supérieure Lettres et Sciences Humaines in collaboration with the Institut d'Études Politiques de Lyonwww.ens-lsh.fr |  Professional Masters in Administration of Research Institutions and the Diffusion of Knowledge

- 50% approx. courses are taught in English
- Length: one academic year, from September to July
- Admission requirements: Post-graduate students: applicants will either have successfully completed four years of university study in the Humanities or Social Sciences - at least 240 ECTS (French M1 for example) or be engaged in PhD studies or have gained a Masters degree.
In-service training students: administrators or managers with appropriate experience in France or abroad in the field covered by this Masters.
- English proficiency: a good command of English is required of all students. If necessary, additional tuition in English is available at the CEREL language service.
- French proficiency: a good command of French is expected of all students. The CEREL language service may provide non-French students with advanced tuition in French for study purposes, if required.
- Tuition fees: for 2008-2009, 231 € (this does not include medical insurance)
- Objectives: The Professional Masters in Administration of Research Institutions and the Diffusion of Knowledge gives students the theoretical knowledge and practical training required for a successful career in the management of both private and public sector research establishments and services. The main features of the Masters include a 16 week internship and courses in the fundamentals of research institutions, public research policy, the governance of research in Europe, project management and English.

Université Nancy 2 - www.univ-nancy2.fr |  European Master Erasmus Mundus "Language and Communication Technologies (LCT)"www.lct-master.org/

- All courses are taught in English
- Length: 2 years
- Admission requirements: Applicants must have a Bachelor degree or equivalent in the area of (Computational) Linguistics, Language Technology, Cognitive Sciences, Computer Science, Mathematics, Artificial Intelligence, or other relevant disciplines, subject to the consent of and the approval by the consortium's admission committee.
- English proficiency: Proficiency in English (for non-native speakers) must be certified by one of the following:
 - TOEFL score of at least 250 (computer-based test) or 575 (paper-based test).
 - Cambridge Proficiency Exam -- pass.
 - IELTS -- > 6.5.
 - Possession of a first degree taught in English.
 - As defined by the individual partner institutions as being sufficient for pursuit of university courses taught in English.
- French proficiency: not required
- Tuition fees: 400 €
- Objectives: The Erasmus Mundus European Masters Program in LCT provides students with profound knowledge and insight into the various disciplines that contribute to the methods of language and communication technologies and it strengthens their ability to work according to scientific methods. Moreover, the students acquire practice-oriented knowledge by choosing appropriate combinations of modules in Language Technology, Computational and Theoretical Linguistics, and Computer Science. It involves studying one year at one of the Universities of the consortium, and completing the second year with a stay in one of the partner Universities. After this, the student will obtain two already approved Master of Science/Arts degrees with legal value in the countries of issue.

Université de Perpignan Via Domitia

The other six partner institutions are Bergamo, St Andrews, Tübingen, Sheffield, Universidade Santiago de Compostela, & Nova Lisboa

www.munduscrossways.eu |  Crossways in European Humanities - Post graduate Mundus programme: Multiple degree -

The successful candidate is awarded 3 fully recognized / accredited national Masters degree certificates + a parchment + a Diploma Supplement listing all sorts of info on the academic progression of the student

- 70% courses are taught in English. Besides the two British universities of the consortium, there are courses taught in English in everyone of the other partner institutions
- Length: 2 years, 4 semesters
- Admission requirements: Minimum BA with top 10% results
Three European languages including English and two of the following (German, French, Italian, Portuguese, Spanish)
Some research project focusing on cultural phenomenon of cultural hybridization in European arts, literature and visual culture.
- English proficiency: this is a post graduate program, so of course students must be fluent in English
- French proficiency: if they choose Perpignan as part of their mobility, they must be fluent in French
- Tuition fees: Non European: 8,474 € a year
European: 2,964 € a year
Many different forms of scholarships are possible and made simple to successful candidates (see website)
- Objectives: Crossways i.e. ways (of thought, of behaviour, of outlook; but also of student travel and study) which cross boundaries (between states, education systems, cultures; but also between collective identities, national culture-spheres, mindframes, value-sets and modes of thought...). This programme draws on insights, perspectives and methods borrowed from: film criticism, history, linguistics, semiotics, cultural studies, media studies, critical theory, philosophy, but the major discipline is Literature, with a resolutely newly-defined comparative approach. The course modules have been chosen in relation to a common theme - European crossways and cultural hybridisation - each university offering a specific yet complementary or contradictory approach.

MASTER

Université de Perpignan Via Domitia

www.univperp.fr - http://english.perpi.free.fr |

➔ Master des Sciences de l'Homme

- All courses are taught in English
 - Length: 2 years, 4 semesters (possible entry into 2nd year if MA)
 - Admission requirements: BA in English studies (Arts/Literature)
 - English proficiency: Excellent
 - French Proficiency Average
 - Tuition fees: around 350 €
 - Objectives: Generating knowledge, understanding, transferable skills
 - so as provide future managers with top-class methodological and communicative skills, and with the knowledge and insight required of people who are to play key roles in e.g. international exchanges, national administrations, parliamentary research, large media groups but also for all those who want to embark on doctoral research in the context of doctoral studies...
 - to give to doctoral researchers and managers alike an inventive flexibility of mind by promoting teamwork and teaching practices which exceed national particularities; and to confer the critical acumen, the multi-track thinking, the innovative propensity required to deal with a rapidly evolving world
 - to promote fruitful networking between different areas of knowledge, research, and discovery in the study-fields related to European cultural identities and its different homogenous and heterogeneous aspects over the centuries. This experimental aspect is the key element in the establishment of a free circulation of ideas benefiting students and researchers alike.
- A common agenda of discovery
The main originality of this series of seminars is to confront students with various and sometimes contradictory methodological approaches to grasp the heterogeneity and hybrid nature of current global cultural landscapes. The motto of Heterologies is "Mind the Gap, do not fill the Gap". Beyond the humanist ideal of links and correspondences that enriches our traditional European culture, time maybe has come to consider the holes and gaps in today's forms of transmission.

SPECIFIC PROGRAMS

Université Jean Moulin Lyon 3

www.univ-lyon3.fr |

➔ SELF PROGRAM

www.univ-lyon3.fr>international>SELF

- All courses are taught in English
- Length: One semester (Sept-Dec & Jan-May)
- Admission requirements: the program is meant for upper level undergraduate students
- English proficiency: Language requirements

TOEFL	IELTS	TOIEC
PBT: 550 TWE 4.5	6.0 TWE 6.5	740
CBT 213 TWE 4.5
IBT 80 TWE 21

- French proficiency: Beginners accepted
 - Tuition fees: 2,750 € per semester
 - Objectives: The Self program offers an excellent opportunity of spending a semester in the heart of Europe. The Rhône-Alpes region is the second-largest economic centre in France and Lyon is an attractive human-sized town, with its Renaissance old town being part of the Unesco World Heritage.
- The program offers a selection of 20 to 25 courses in Business, Law or Arts, most of them designed from a European perspective stressing international comparisons, together with a 60-hour French language course (5 levels).
- The SELF program starts with a two-week introduction program combining intensive French courses and seminars in the three given academic fields, as well as cultural or leisure activities.
- The Self program is taught in an international environment, offers much flexibility (students can also combine courses from the French University system) and full academic and administrative support.

Université Catholique de l'Ouest - Angers

www.uco.fr

➔ University Diploma in translation for non-native speakers of French

- 50% courses taught in English
- Length: 11 months (September-March: theoretical and practical training; April-August: work placement in a translation company)
- Admission requirements: BA or its equivalent in languages (high proficiency in both French and English)
- English proficiency: TOEFL score: 600; Cambridge Proficiency Examination
- French proficiency: Bachelor in French or DALF C1 minimum or TCF5
- Tuition fees: 3,500 €
- Objectives: The objective of this one-year postgraduate course is to train graduate language students to become professional translators working with at least two languages (English and French). They follow a program of studies in Angers from September until March and go on a work placement in France or abroad from April until August. The curriculum includes general and specialized translation (economic, legal, technical), terminology, CAT, localization, project management, word processing tools, revision and desktop publishing

SPECIFIC PROGRAMS

Institut de Langue et Culture Françaises
Institut Catholique de Paris - www.icp.fr/ilcf |
 ILCF Certificate: Program in English about France and Europe

Course 1: Politics and economy in France and Europe
 Course 2: French cinema and immigration
 Course 3: Contemporary Art in France
 Course 4: Europe today
 Course 5: Islam in France

- All courses are taught in English
 The students can take the courses taught in English (from 1 to 5 different courses of 4h/wk for 11 weeks) in combination with French or culture courses, taught in French.
- Length: from September to December and from February to May (11 weeks)
- Admission requirements: 18 years old minimum
 Baccalaureate or equivalence
 Pre-registration form filled with 320 € of deposit.
 Program available in addition to a minimum of 1 other course in French at the ILCF.
- English proficiency: This program is for foreign students who speak or use English language as their native, professional or second language.
- French proficiency: not required
- Tuition fees: 545 € per course (4h/11 weeks)
- Objectives: The ILCF offers a new program in English about France and Europe. It makes it possible for foreigners who do not speak French to discover France today, the French culture, and the place of France in Europe.

ISUGA Europe-Asia Management Institute - Quimper
www.isuga.fr |
 Diploma in Languages & Cultures Europe-Asia

- All courses are taught in English
- Length: 1 or 2 years
- Admission requirements: French « bac », i.e. high school diploma or UK "A" level, Chinese "gaokao", Indian "10+2"
- English proficiency: Admission: medium English level required (to be assessed during face to face or phone interview), no IELTS or TOEFL score required
 Graduation: no requirement
- French proficiency: not required
- Tuition fees: 4,500 € (1 year program). 9,000 € (2 years program)
- Objectives: ISUGA « Diploma in Languages & Cultures Europe-Asia » is a unique undergraduate course focused on European (for Asians) or Asian (for Europeans) languages & cultures. It allows significant training in two foreign languages (English & French for Asians, English & Chinese or Japanese for Europeans); moreover it allows a good understanding of European culture & civilisation for Asian students, Asian culture & civilisation for European students. Some time is reserved for study abroad periods, too.
It is a unique program focused on European & Asian languages, cultures and civilisations.

Université de Perpignan* - www.univ-perp.fr/saicisic/ |
 Summer University of Wine, Tourism and Culture

- Length: 9 days – 50 hours
- Admission requirements: Course designed for foreign people over 18 who love wine.
- Languages proficiency: A good level in French or English is required. The possibility of translation depends on the participant's nationalities.
- Tuition fees: 690 € (tuition fees include visits and transport during the stay and all study material)
- Objectives: - Discovery of Southern France's atmosphere and landscapes at 12 km from the Mediterranean coast. Wine tasting to learn how to talk about wine.
 - Programme 50 hours
 - Foundations of wine science, specialized vocabulary.
 - How to talk about wine.
 - Exploration of the famous French wine growing regions
 - Winemaking
 - Tasting workshops to practice methods and techniques
 - Language of wine
 - Practical experience of theoretical foundations focused on the special character of the wines of Southern France
 - The work of professional winemakers including visits to wine cellars
 - Cultural visits organized by professional guides
 - Food and wine pairing
 - Excursion among Mediterranean coast or Pyrénées or Cathar castles or Carcassonne...

* Info 2008

Summer Courses

Université François-Rabelais de Tours

www.univ-tours.fr

www.cesr.univ-tours.fr

🕒 The Invention of Modern Europe (14th – 17th centuries) Participants will earn 6 European Credits (ECTS)

- All courses are taught in English
- Length: from 15 to 26 June 2009
2 weeks: 30 hours of teaching, 3 hours in the morning and program of cultural activities in the afternoon
Optional intensive French course from 2 to 12 June
- Admission requirements: Any student who has completed two years in higher education and has a genuine interest in the Renaissance.
Inscription from November to March 2009
- English proficiency: intermediate
- French proficiency: not required
- Tuition fees: 700 € (250 € deposit) – If there are fewer than 15 students registered, the University reserves the right to cancel the programme
- Objectives: - To understand the political and cultural stakes of this crucial period in European and world history, the huge changes affecting religion (the Reformation), the amazing inventions and discoveries of Leonardo da Vinci or Copernicus, the artistic achievements of Michel-Ange and Josquin), and the very rich literature of the period (Petrarch, Montaigne, Rabelais, Shakespeare).
- To discover the most famous monuments and locations associated with the Renaissance in the Loire Valley: Castle of Amboise and Clos Lucé, Chenonceau, Castle and old city of Chinon, La Devinière (birthplace of Rabelais), Richelieu, Castle of Chambord, Poitiers, Castle of Azay le Rideau, Prieuré St Cosme (Ronsard's home)
- To enable participants to attend the International Conference on "Psyche and the Renaissance" (from 29 June to 3rd July, free access to participants of Summer Program)

🕒 Europe in the Making: Understanding the History and Workings of Today's European Institutions Participants will earn 6 European Credits (ECTS)

- All courses are taught in English
- Length: from June 29 to July 17, 2009
(3 weeks: 38 hours of teaching, and cultural program)
- Admission requirements: Any student who has spent at least already one year at the university/ in college. Inscription from November to March 2009
- English proficiency: intermediate
- French proficiency: not required
- Tuition fees: 860 € (250 € deposit) If there are fewer than 15 students registered, the University reserves the right to cancel the program
- Objectives: • To understand the evolution of the European Union, its development since 1950 and its future.
• To discover important places in the Loire Valley area that have a direct relationship with Europe through a series of conferences and visits:
- The Loire river, designated as a UNESCO World Heritage site
- The city of Tours and the AVEC network (Association of European Cultural Cities)
- Loire Valley castles: castle of Amboise and Clos Lucé, Azay-le-Rideau, Candes Saint Martin – Montsoreau - Fontevraud
- Local food products (conference and local cheese and wine tasting).
• To visit the European Parliament during a parliamentary session

Université Catholique de Lille

www.univ-catholille.fr/studying-la-catho/european-summer-program.asp |

- All courses are taught in English
- Length: 3 weeks in July (July 2 – 24, 2009)
- Admission requirements: Completion of secondary education.
- English proficiency: An intermediate level of English (level B2)
- European Summer Program for intermediate students in French

🕒 European Summer Program for intermediate students in French

- French proficiency: an intermediate level in French (level A2)
- Tuition fees: 1,800 €
- Objectives: Based in Lille, a vibrant and entertaining city at the heart of Europe, Lille Catholic University, who is reputed for the quality of its teaching and its personalised approach to students, offers this program to students looking for an intensive French language course in the summer with conversation classes in the afternoons. A rich program of fieldtrips and cultural activities will give students a stimulating study abroad opportunity.

🕒 European Summer Program on European Studies

- French proficiency: not required
- Tuition fees: 1,800 €
- Objectives: Based in Lille, a vibrant and entertaining city at the heart of Europe, Lille Catholic University, who is reputed for the quality of its teaching and its personalised approach to students, offers this program to students looking for French language courses plus an introduction to the European Union. Its courses on politics, economics and intercultural communication combined with a rich program of fieldtrips and cultural activities offer a stimulating study abroad opportunity.