Paris Ile de France

Alliance Française Paris Ile de France

● Institution's profile

The Alliance Française is a prestigious organization founded in 1883 to promote the spread of French language and culture throughout the world. Its worldwide network serves 450,000 students in 137 countries.

Located in the heart of the French capital, the Alliance Française of Paris and the Ile-de-France is truly a center for international encounters. Each year, more than 10,000 students of 155 nations register to learn French.

Passionate about French language and culture, the 100 members of the faculty of the Alliance Française of Paris and the Ile-de-France all hold postsecondary degrees and are specialists in the teaching of French as a foreign language.

The Alliance Française of Paris and the Ile-de-France enables you to study French at your own pace. All of your needs receive special attention, beginning with an assessment of your strengths, weaknesses, and goals. All of our courses are harmonized with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR, levels A1 to C1).

The Alliance Française of Paris and the Ile-de-France has earned the FLE quality seal awarded jointly by the French ministries of culture and communication, higher education and research, and foreign and European affairs. The organization received the highest possible score on the 5 criteria evaluated (services, facilities, faculty, curriculum, and management).
