PROFILE

The Université Jean Moulin Lyon 3 comprises institutes of business administration and technology and faculties of law, philosophy, languages, and literature and civilization.

Operating on 3 sites—the Quai Claude Bernard and the Manufacture des Tabacs in Lyon, as well as the CEUBA in Bourg en Bresse, the university covers an area of 103,000 m<sup>2</sup>.

Fields of study

This year it enrolled 21,300 students of 120 nationalities in a comprehensive array of degree programs—11 broad academic majors at the undergraduate (licence) level, and 7 double majors; 3 broad master's programs (covering 23 concentrations and 80 different specializations); 20 professional licence programs; and 3 postsecondary technical diplomas.

The university maintains 350 international cooperative agreements with institutions in 65 countries. Of the university's 4,100 international students, 56% are enrolled directly in degree programs, 10% are enrolled for short periods of study under the European ERASMUS program, and 34% are here under various bilateral exchange agreements, including inter-regional exchanges. The university sent 450 French students abroad for study, 54% under ERASMUS and 46% under other programs.

The university offers 25 inter-regional and inter-institutional programs leading to dual degrees.

Research

The Université Jean Moulin Lyon 3 is home to 17 research teams recognized by the Ministry of Higher Education and Research. Together, those teams run 40 research centers in which 1,000 doctoral candidates work. Some 100 dissertations are defended each year.
